Re: United States v. Marcus Odom, 17 Cr. 321 (JMF)

Dear Judge Furman:

The Government writes in advance of re-sentencing, which is scheduled for January 24, 2023, at 3:30 p.m.

The victim, whom the defendant shot and seriously injured during an attempted robbery, would like to address the Court during re-sentencing. The victim, however, has informed the Government that travelling from out of state to downtown Manhattan would be very taxing on his health. Accordingly, the victim asks that he be permitted to appear by video. The Government respectfully submits that accommodating the victim would be consistent with his "right to be reasonably heard at any public proceeding in the district court involving ... sentencing." 18 U.S.C. § 3771(a)(4). Counsel for Mr. Odom has no objection to this request.

If the Court grants the victim's request, the Government would be happy to assist with any necessary arrangements.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York
